

STOLE A SUIT CASE PLANNING A LITTLE AND PARTS FROM THE JAP COOK SURPRISE PARTY FOR MIGUEL

RESTAURANT THIEF ARRESTED
PLAIN DRUNKS ON THE BENCH

PETITION FOR REAPPOINTMENT
CIRCULATING IN ALBUQUERQUE

A man who refused to give his name was arrested by Police Officer Jordan yesterday afternoon, on the charge of stealing a suit case containing jewelry and other personal belongings from a Japanese waiter in the Mercurio cafe on South Second street, named Katuma.

The suit case, which contained a large part of the Jap's wardrobe, including his "other pants," and a revolver, some rings, a watch, chain and other belongings, was quickly lifted from the restaurant Thursday night when the owner was busily engaged in cooking the menu for the patrons of the establishment. The Jap has been working there as cook for several days past.

The thief, arrested formerly worked in the restaurant but was discharged after being employed for only two or three days. Since that time he has been hanging around town.

The man was arrested by Mr. Jordan in a billiard room and was identified by Frank Steffen, proprietor of the restaurant. He will appear before Judge Crawford this morning on a charge of theft. The suit case was discovered in a vacant house where the man had concealed it.

Only five plain drunks were lined up on the morning's bench yesterday morning before Judge Crawford. One of them, a man named Smith, was fined $10 for being drunk and disorderly, and was committed to the dungeon, not having the coin. Edward Arjila, Frank Evans, James St. Clair and Hilario Montoya were each rendered five dollars or days for drunkenness.

Domestic Squabble.
Mrs. Arceliana Armijo and Mrs. Senobis live in the same adobe building on North Third street and have been good neighbors, but of late there has been considerable friction between the two families. Yesterday their troubles culminated in the Senora Armijo swearing out a warrant in the court of Justice George B. Craig against the Senora Arjila charging her with an "assault with words." The woman was brought into court by Constable Jim Smith and the trial of the case was set for 10 o'clock this morning.

One More Burglar Scare.
There was one more burglar scare last night at the residence of George Thomas, of the Whitney company, on Silver avenue. Mr. Thomas was away from the house, the hour being about 7 o'clock when friends who passed the house heard some one inside and got no response upon knocking at the door. They notified Mr. Thomas who arrived on the scene just in time to see the burglarious man making his exit. Thomas chased the man several blocks but lost him in the shuffle. As far as can be discovered he took nothing with him.

Property Sold on Forged Deeds.
Seattle, Wash., Nov. 17.—It has been discovered that at least thirty-two forged warranty and quitclaim deeds have been filed here within a year and it is feared that there are many others. The practice has been for the criminals to forge the name of property holders residing out of the state, file the bogus deeds here, and have the land sold by realty dealers. An alleged mythical J. Ralph Norton is mixed up in some of the transactions.

From California come two warranty deeds which it is claimed are forgeries. M. D. Brown, of San Francisco, is the notary in one and Matthew Brady, of San Francisco, witnessed the other. Mary B. Bell, St. Louis, witnessed as notary seven deeds claimed to bear forged signatures.

That Well at Jarilla.
The well at Jarilla is now 160 feet and the drill is in granite. Before the granite was struck staff was brought up which panned gold. The ore indications in the well are said to be fine and there may be some developments that are interesting along this line.

The Varsity Monthly.
The University of Arizona Monthly has made its initial appearance. It is a very clever magazine, newsy and bright, ably written and has a great variety of items which are of great interest to University students and alumni.

A Narrow Escape.
The mayor of Blaine, one Taylor, had his resignation all prepared last week but changed his mind at the crucial moment.

Henry Gallagher. well known as Harry Hill, dropped dead in the barroom of the Palace hotel in Prescott Saturday evening of heart trouble.

Hitting the Pecos.
Immigrants are pouring into the Pecos valley. Three hundred recently arrived in one day.

weight of the Indian boys is about 145, and the home boys will run a pound less. The Varsity team have done some very clever work this year and they have been working hard under Coach Angell, who is an old and wise football man, and knows all the tricks that can be performed with the platoon.

The Indian, under Coach Cayser, arrived in the city last evening on No. 1 and are a stalwart and husky looking set.

Today's game will probably be the best yet played this season and the attendance promises to be the largest. No one should miss it. The Varsity boys feel they have hardly had the proper support heretofore from the city people.

Peace Dove in Chill.
Valparaiso, Chile, Nov. 17.—President Balmaceda's formal reception at Santiago of Senor Alvarez Calderon, Peruvian minister to Chile, marks a momentous phase of South American history. Papers here express the opinion that the outcome of Senor Calderon's mission will be the satisfactory settlement of the Taena and Arica problem. It must be remembered that Chile came into possession of the provinces through the treaty of Ancon, which ended them for ten years, at the end of which time a plebiscite was to be taken to determine their ultimate fate. The favored republic to pay 10,000,000 pesos to the other as compensation. Chile's contention is that the ten year limit has passed without her being able to carry out the obligations of the treaty, which has become de facto extinct.

Besides, Peru at the time of the treaty was suffering serious internal troubles, had just been defeated in a disastrous war and could not have directly ceded the provinces without challenging a popular revolution. Therefore it temporarily ceded them, bearing obviously in mind that Chile, being the actual possessor during ten years, had every means at her hand to insure the success of the plebiscite and remain their legitimate owner forever.

Trouble Brewing in Santo Domingo.
San Juan, Nov. 17.—The United States cruiser Cleveland arrived here today from San Juan Bay, Santo Domingo, and will return there immediately after coaling. Her officers say that while the discontent is widespread in Santo Domingo, no outbreaks have occurred and comparatively quiet prevails. It was persistently rumored, however, before the Cleveland left San Juan Bay that trouble might be expected before November 20, as the anti-Morales party, locally termed the "Holas," was gaining strength and would soon outnumber the government supporters by five to one.

Underwriters Will Confer.
H. M. Maus, president of the Arizona Funeral Directors' association, has been appointed chairman of the committee selected by the national association to confer with the Mexican government and the United States consuls, and endeavor to bring about better relations than now exist between that country and this regarding the removal of Americans who die in Mexico.

Convicts on Scenic Route.
Within the walls of the territorial penitentiary 211 prisoners are at present engaged in serving the sentences imposed upon them by the courts of New Mexico. Altogether there are 250 prisoners registered as inmates of the penitentiary, but of this number 29 are engaged in working upon the scenic highway at this end, while a party of ten is at work upon the Las Vegas end.
